ETIQUETTE

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/BBfZQF8EnTY

Fernando Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

Welcome to Unit 5. So far, I have learnt how to write a formal email, formal documents like a resumé or a cover letter and how to behave at an interview. Knowing how to adapt to other social and working conventions is a must if I want to work abroad. In this unit we will deal with manners and etiquette both at the workplace or online. Once I have fully practised these concepts I will be ready to move to Ireland and work there. Do you want to join me?

Aims

This unit aims at knowing the most significant features of the customs and usages of the community where the foreign language is spoken.The students will learn about protocols and norms of social relations typical of other countries like the UK, Spain or Ireland. Apart from that, we will be able to identify the values and beliefs of the community where the foreign language is spoken or the socio-professional aspects of the sector in any type of text. The student will also be able to express obligation, advice or necessity with modal verbs.

GOBIERNO DE ESPAÑA
MINISTERIO DE EDUCACIÓN, FORMACIÓN PROFESIONAL Y DEPORTES

Ministerio de Educación, Formación Profesional y Deporte. (Public Domain)

Materiales formativos de FP Online propiedad del Ministerio de Educación, Formación Profesional y Deportes.

Legal Notice

Use of English. Modal Verbs

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/Sb423wn76fg

Fernando Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

In this section, we are going to deal with the expression of modality. Modal verbs are auxiliary verbs in English that express necessity, possibility, obligations, permission, or ability. Common modal verbs include can, could, may, might, must, shall, should, will, and would. Unlike regular verbs, modal verbs do not change form according to the subject and are typically followed by a base verb. They play a crucial role in conveying nuances in meaning and are essential for constructing questions, requests, offers, and statements of certainty or doubt. Below you will find a full explanation that may help

The Expression of Modality

Piqsels. grammar (CC0)

Modal Verbs are a specific category of auxiliary verbs used to indicate. We will find them indicating attitudes such as possibility, necessity, ability, permission obligation or advice, among others. They modify the main verb in a sentence to convey specific meanings.

They are followed by a verb in the Infinitive form.

ABILITY AND REQUEST

- can/can't, could/couldn't, be able to
- Can/could are used for general abilities

- Be able to is used for a specific ability or an ability that requires to overcome some kind of obstacle

  Examples

  I can organise my tasks well

  I will never be able to manage a team

  I could speak french well when I was younger

  Can I go to the toilet, please?

  I tried to do my best at the interview but I wasn't able to get the job

PROHIBITION

- mustn't/can't

  Examples

  You mustn't arrive after 8:30 at work

  You can’t wear that dress to the interview!

OBLIGATION/ABSENCE OF OBLIGATION

- must/ have to / don't have to
- Although sometimes "must" and "have to" are taken as synonyms there is a difference:
- MUST: a sense of obligation that comes from the speaker
- HAVE TO: rules or things that other people think are necessary

  Examples

  You must/ have to answer all the questionnaire.

  I must eat less carbs to lose weight (I don't feel very well)

  Doctor: You have to eat less carbs (the doctor told me)

  You don't have to learn French at this school. (you can do it if you want)

  You don't have to get up early on Sunday mornings.

NECESSITY

- Need to / don't need to / needn't / have to / don't have to
- These are used to express things that can be done but are not necessary

Examples

We have to get some sleep

I have to find a job

I need to buy new glasses

We need to book in advance

We don´t have to wear a tie

We needn´t book in advance

ADVICE

- should(n´t), ought to (not to), must (strong advice)

Examples

You should/ought to see the new Stars Wars film

You must see the new Stars Wars film.

POSSIBILITY

- may (not), might(not), could, can (theoretical possibility)

Examples

It may/might/could rain today

The government can rise salaries (if they want, they can do it)

The government might rise salaries (apparently they have the intention to do so)

CERTAINTY/DEDUCTIONS

- must/can't

  Examples

  (2.45 pm, entryphone ringing) That must be Emily. (She always arrives at the same time)

  (1 pm, entryphone ringing) That can´t be Emily (too early, she´s at school)

MODAL PERFECTS

Some modals can be used to talk about past events:

- modal+have+past participle

  - Deductions: must/can't have (certainty/ impossibility)
    You must have left the keys at work
    You can't have left the keys at work, today is Sunday!

  - Possibilities: might, could, may have
    She's not here! So late... She might have missed the last train.
    I think I saw her at the cinema but I might/may/could have been wrong

  - Abilities: could(n't) have
    I could have gone to Africa when I was young.
    I could have been a Rockstar. I was really good at playing the guitar

  - Necessity: need(n't) have
    We needn't have book in advance, there were plenty of rooms available

  - Regrets: should have
    We should have told the truth. Now it's too late

PRESENTATION

https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/e/2PACX-1vQ3KRRTRruYpnzEQuJL7eNgPiFbI-yEZ9fJxFqh4hE1yQxEcDuipQkQYIj3xo8I7nvVnjANdI0c8Uyf/embed?start=false&loop=false&delayms=3000

Fernando Braña Asensio. Modal Verbs (CC BY-NC-SA)

Choose the correct modal verb

Fill in with an appropriate modal verb can, could, may/might, must, should, or have to.

1. You [ ] submit the report by Friday.It's the deadline.
2. We [ ] to improve our customer service to stay competitive.
3. [ ] you help me with this presentation?
4. Employees [ ] to wear their ID badges at all times.
5. He [ ] finish the project on time if he works late, but that's just my advice.
6. I think you [ ] contact the IT department if you have any technical issues.
7. We [ ] have a meeting tomorrow to discuss the new strategy but it's not certain
8. She [ ] be in her office, but I'm not sure.
9. I think we [ ] discuss thi in our next meeting
10. It's not necessary for you to attend the meeting so you [ ] go

Check

Cultural Clichés

Read the paragraph about cultural clichés below and fill in the missing words.

0:00 / 2:21

Fernando Braña Asensio. cultural clichés (CC BY-NC-SA)

Understanding the cultural differences in working between Spain and England [redacted] greatly enhance your ability to collaborate effectively with colleagues from both countries. While there are similarities, such as professional demeanor and respect for deadlines, notable differences exist in work culture and communication styles.

In Spain, the work environment tends to be more relaxed compared to England. Spanish colleagues [redacted] prioritize interpersonal relationships and often [redacted] extend lunch breaks to engage in informal interactions throughout the day. Therefore, if you are working with Spanish counterparts, you should be prepared to engage in casual conversations and build rapport before delving into work-related discussions. Flexibility in scheduling and a willingness to adapt to a less rigid structure may also be necessary.

Conversely, in England, the work culture is generally more formal and structured. Punctuality is highly valued, and meetings are typically concise and focused. English professionals [redacted] adhere to scheduled times for meetings and tasks, and you [redacted] be prepared for efficient decision-making processes. Clear and direct communication [redacted] be maintained, while ensuring a polite and professional tone.

Regarding decision-making and project planning, Spanish teams [redacted] prioritize consensus-building and involve multiple stakeholders in discussions. This approach [redacted] lead to a slower decision-making process but ensures that everyone feels included and their opinions are valued. In contrast, English colleagues often [redacted] make decisions more independently and swiftly, aiming for efficiency and timely project execution.

In terms of work-life balance, Spanish employees often [redacted] enjoy longer vacation periods and prioritize family time, whereas English professionals typically [redacted] manage shorter holiday allowances and [redacted] place a stronger emphasis on work commitments. Understanding these differences [redacted] help you plan projects and meetings effectively, taking into account cultural preferences and expectations.

By recognizing and respecting these cultural nuances, you [redacted] foster stronger professional relationships and enhance collaboration with colleagues from Spain and England. Effective communication, adaptability, and mutual respect are key to navigating these cultural differences and achieving successful outcomes in cross-cultural work environments.

Submit

Rewriting with modal verbs

Rewrite the sentences below using the modal verb in brackets

1.- It is compulsory to complete the training before starting the job. (must)

You [redacted]

2.- It is possible that we will launch the new product next month. (might)

We [redacted]

3.- I recommend that you update the document regularly. (should)

You [redacted]

4.- It is not necessary for you to attend the meeting. (don't have to)

You [redacted]

5.- Is it okay if I use your computer for a moment? (may)

[redacted] ?

Submit

Choose the correct modal verb

1.- As a team leader, you _____ ensure that all members are meeting their deadlines.

- must
- can

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

2.- _____ I leave the office early today if I finish my work?

- May
- Should

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option

2. Wrong

3.- We _____consider upgrading our software to increase efficiency.

- must
- could

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

4.- The client _____not be satisfied with the proposal; let's review it again.

- might
- should

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

5.- You _____always adhere to company policies and procedures.

- must
- may

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

Professional settings

Read the professional settings carefully. Then choose one of the modal verbs in brackets and write it in the gap

1.- Setting: The company is considering opening a new branch in another city

You say: "We [redacted] (could/must) expand to increase our market presence."

2.- Setting: An employee asks if it is possible to work from home occasionally

You say: "Yes, you [redacted] (may/must) work from home on Fridays."

3.- Setting: An important client has requested a change in the project.

You say :"We [redacted] (should/might) prioritize this request to maintain good relations."

4.- Setting: There is a technical problem with the system

You say: "You [redacted] (can/must) report the issue to the IT department immediately."

5.- Setting: The boss is reminding the employees about an important company policy.

"All employees [redacted] (have to/can) follow the dress code policy."

Submit

MODAL PERFECTS

1.- It's possible that they missed the meeting.

They _____ the meeting.

- might have missed
- should have

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

2.- I'm sure she completed the report on time.

She _____ the report on time.

- must have completed
- should have completed

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

3.- It wasn't necessary for you to work late yesterday.

You _____ late yesterday.

- needn't have been
- might have been

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong

4.- I'm certain he didn't forget about the deadline.

He _____ about the deadline.

- shouldn't have forgotten
- can't have forgotten

Wrong

Correct Option

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option

5.- They had the ability to meet the sales targets, but they didn't.

They _____ the sales targets, but they didn't.

- can have met
- could have met

Wrong

Correct Option

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option

Modal Perfects

Choose the correct modal perfect and write in in the gaps

1. We [redacted] (might have/must have) received the email, but it was lost in the spam folder.
2. She [redacted] (should have/can't have) known about the meeting; I reminded her twice.
3. They [redacted] (could have/must have) signed the contract yesterday, but there were some unresolved issues.

4. He [redacted] (needn't have/must have) apologized for the mistake; it wasn't his fault.
5. The team [redacted] (can't have/might have) finished the project so quickly; it's impossible!.

Submit

Professional Settings using modal perfects

Read the following professional settings. Then fill in with the correct modal perfect and the clues given

1.- Setting: A report was not delivered on time, but there was a backup system.

- "It was possible to use the backup system, but they didn't." (might)
- "They [redacted] the backup system, but they didn't."

2.- Setting: An employee attended an important meeting without knowing the details beforehand.

- "It wasn't necessary for him to attend the meeting without the details." (needn't)
- "He [redacted] the meeting without the details."

3.- Setting: "The project was finished earlier than expected due to the team's efficiency."

- "The team completed the project earlier than expected. I'm sure they worked very efficiently." (must)
- "The team [redacted] very efficiently to complete the project earlier than expected."

4.- Setting: "A client did not receive an important update due to an email error."

- "It's possible that the email was sent to the wrong address." (may)
- "The email [redacted] to the wrong address."

5.- Setting: A boss suspects that an employee forgot a crucial task.

- "I'm certain that he didn't forget the task; he is usually very responsible." (can't)
- "He [redacted] the task; he is usually very responsible."

Submit

A Step Ahead

If you need further practice, why not giving these links a try?

- English grammar
- My English pages
- BBC Learning English
- How to use Modal Verbs for Business
- Business English

Vocabulary: Job etiquette

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/0ICKXmxcGnA

Fernando Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

Our teacher wants us to practice vocabulary related to etiquette at the workplace since managing this effectively is crucial to build a professional and harmonious environment. It ensures respectful interactions, enhances communication, and builds a positive reputation for both individuals and the organization. Adhering to proper etiquette can lead to improved teamwork, increased productivity, and a more inclusive culture. It also helps in avoiding misunderstandings and conflicts, thereby creating a more efficient and pleasant work atmosphere. Ultimately, good job etiquette contributes to career advancement and organizational success.

Job etiquette match

Match each definition with the correct word

PRESS TO PLAY

Etiquette at the workplace

Read the following statements about etiquette at the workplace. Then click on the correct answer

PRESS TO PLAY

Etiquette at the workplace

Listen and read the paragraph below. Fill in the missing words.

0:00 / 2:05

Fernando Braña Asensio. Job etiquette (CC BY-NC-SA)

In today's workplace, [redacted] is paramount. It involves not only your skillset but also how you conduct yourself daily. [redacted] is a critical aspect; arriving on time shows respect for others' schedules and demonstrates reliability. Adhering to the company's [redacted] also reflects your commitment to maintaining a professional image.

Effective [redacted] is essential in fostering a positive work environment. This includes both verbal and non-verbal cues such as [redacted] . For instance, maintaining eye contact and using a firm [redacted] can convey confidence and attentiveness. Moreover, practicing good [redacted] —such as using a clear subject line, a polite [redacted] , and proofreading your messages—can prevent misunderstandings and promote efficiency.

During meetings, observing proper [redacted] etiquette is crucial. This means coming prepared, listening actively, and avoiding interruptions. Good [redacted] skills will ensure you meet deadlines and manage your workload effectively, reducing stress and increasing productivity.

In a diverse workplace, showing [redacted] and understanding for [redacted] is vital. This not only promotes a harmonious environment but also enriches the team's perspectives and ideas. When conflicts arise, employing [redacted] techniques can help maintain professional relationships and keep the team focused on common goals.

Successful projects often depend on [redacted] and synergy. When team members collaborate effectively, they can achieve outcomes that surpass individual contributions. Being culturally [redacted] can enhance your interactions with colleagues from different backgrounds, making the workplace more inclusive and cohesive.

By mastering these aspects of workplace [redacted] , you contribute to a positive, productive, and professional work environment.

Submit

A Step Ahead

If you need to delve into job etiquette rules and vocabulary you will find further information here:

- Business Etiquette
- Job Success:Business etiquette
- Business English: Job interview vocabulary

READING

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/3c_NGhm4SoM

Fernando Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

In this reading section, we are going to deal with a couple of texts which offer important to understand because in my future job, I must know how to behave. Knowing the basic rules, what to do, and what not to do is of the utmost importance. We will read a couple of texts about how to behave, what the basic rules online are and why some employers prefer older people to younger ones, which seems pretty interesting to me. Understanding all these aspects will be helpful for me in the short term.So, let the reading begin!

Gen Z's etiquette

piqsels. genz (CC0)

Generation Z, the newest group in the workforce, brings new ideas and ways of working. They were born with the new millenium and like clear and honest communication, often using digital tools to stay in touch. Working together and hearing everyone's ideas is important to them. They also value a good balance between work and personal life, understanding that mental health matters. Their work style is a mix of professionalism and a relaxed attitude, showing they are comfortable with technology and change.However, on many occasions their relaxed attitude is confused with bad etiquette at work. In the following article from Forbes you will read about Gen Z's Painful Etiquette Gap And How To Bridge It.

Match each definition with the correct word

First read the article. Then check the meaning of these words

PRESS TO PLAY

Gen Z's Painful Etiquette Gap And How To Bridge It

Piqsels. young at work (CC0)

1.- According to the Glassdoor data mentioned in the text, what is Generation Z projected to surpass in the full-time workforce this year?

- Millennials
- Baby Boomers
- Gen X

- Traditionalists

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

2.- What percentage of surveyed managers mentioned that they avoid hiring Gen Z individuals, showing a preference for older workers?

- 20%
- 25%
- 30%
- 35%

Wrong

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Wrong
3. Correct Option
4. Wrong

3.- What percentage of hiring managers stated that Gen Z applicants struggle with appropriate attire during the recruitment phase?

- 50%
- 55%
- 58%
- 60%

Wrong

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Wrong
3. Correct Option
4. Wrong

4.- Which of the following is NOT mentioned as one of the issues Gen Z applicants struggle with during the recruitment phase?

- Lack of good eye contact

- Unreasonable salary demands
- Excellent communication skills
- Disinterest or lack of engagement

Wrong

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Wrong
3. Correct Option
4. Wrong

5.- What behavior challenge of Gen Z workers falls under the category of basic etiquette according to the text?

- Dishonesty
- Lack of work ethic
- Tardiness to work
- Interpersonal conflicts

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

6.- How many hiring managers reported that some Gen Z workers struggle with dishonesty?

- 15%
- 20%
- 25%
- 30%

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

7.- According to the text, what essential trait should hiring managers assess in young candidates along with etiquette issues?

- Professional achievements
- Teachability
- Work experience
- Networking skills

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

8.- What do many Gen Z individuals emphasize in defining success, as mentioned in the text?

- Professional achievements
- Personal fulfillment and flexibility
- Salary increments
- Job stability

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

9.- Why does the author advocate for mentorship and guidance for Gen Z individuals in the workplace?

- To dismiss their values
- To bridge performance gaps
- To maintain the status quo
- To avoid hiring them

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

10.- What is suggested as a sustainable solution for companies as Gen Z gradually outnumbers previous generations in the workforce?

- Avoid hiring Gen Z individuals
- Embrace and support them
- Focus on hiring Baby Boomers
- Implement strict rules and regulations

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

Netiquette

Piqsels. net (CC0)

Netiquette, or "internet etiquette," refers to the set of rules and guidelines for polite and respectful behavior online. It includes practices such as being courteous in emails, not using all caps (which may be seen as shouting), respecting others' privacy, avoiding spamming or sending unsolicited messages, and being mindful of tone in written communication to avoid misunderstandings. Essentially, netiquette helps create a positive and respectful online environment. In the following article by Lander University you can delve into what is meant by netiquette

Match each definition with the correct word

Read the article. Then, match the difinitions with the correct words

PRESS TO PLAY

Netiquette

piqsels. online (CC0)

1.-What is the purpose of netiquette rules for online courses?

- To make communication more difficult
- To ensure effective and respectful communication
- To encourage the use of text-speak
- To prevent any communication with classmates

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

2.- Why is it important to use proper grammar when communicating online?

- To appear more professional
- To confuse others
- To save time
- To show lack of respect

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

3.- How should students maintain their communication tone when interacting with online professors?

- Be casual and informal
- Use slang and abbreviations
- Maintain a level of formality
- Avoid proper salutations

Wrong

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Wrong
3. Correct Option
4. Wrong

4.- According to the text, what is a key aspect of good netiquette?

- Treating others with disrespect
- Following the golden rule
- Ignoring classmates' opinions
- Using sarcasm in every interaction
- They expedite the recruitment process

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong
5. Wrong

5.- Why is it important to celebrate diversity in the online classroom?

- To only value one cultural background
- To avoid learning from others
- To respect classmates' opinions
- To discourage different points of view

Wrong

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Wrong
3. Correct Option
4. Wrong

6.- Why should students avoid using sarcasm in written communication?

- It always leads to laughter
- It can cause misunderstandings
- It helps convey meaning clearly
- It is necessary for online interaction

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

7.- What is recommended before asking a question to an instructor in an online course?

- Search for the answer first
- Never try to find the answer
- Ask the question immediately
- Wait for someone else to ask the question

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

8.- Why is using the correct format important for assignment submissions and email communications?

- It doesn't matter as long as the content is good
- It helps keep things organized
- It confuses instructors
- It delays the communication process

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

9.- What should students do before submitting assignments or sending messages online?

- Read the instructions carefully and follow them
- Submit files in any format
- Use a vague subject line
- Avoid editing messages

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Correct Option
2. Wrong
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

10.- How can following netiquette rules benefit students in online courses according to the text?

- It can lead to failure
- It confirms professionalism and respect
- It encourages rude behavior
- It is unnecessary for success

Wrong

Correct Option

Wrong

Wrong

Solution

1. Wrong
2. Correct Option
3. Wrong
4. Wrong

A Step Ahead

If you want to practise some more reading comprehension and delve into the world of job etiquette, the following pages offer very useful information

- Email etiquette
- Netiquette in mails-European Commission doc
- Do's and dont's at the workplace

LISTENING

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/HBHHOprKdis

Fernando Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

Having enough information about how to keep a neat etiquette at work or online is a must if we want our workplce to be productive. We must collaborate with our behaviour so that there is a positive environment. Our teacher believes that learning useful things such as how to greet, dress or how to face an online or phone interview is of the utmost importance. In this section, we will listen to useful tips about how to keep good manners and a correct etiquette at work. This information will come in handy for me when I start work so why don't you join me?

Office etiquette tips

Piqsels. handshake (CC0)

Etiquette in the workplace is key because it establishes respect amongst colleagues. When proper manners are used, collaborative environment is created. Consequently, each team member can feel heard and understood,as well as an important part of a team.

Efficiency.at the workplace is enhanced by maintaining a good etiquette. In the following activities, you will listen to some useful tips about how keep good manners and a correct etiquette at work, whether online or at the workplace.

Office Etiquette Tips

Office Etiquette tips with Mister Manners

Source: @realbizsite Office Etiquette Tips (Standard Youtube License)

Alternative Textual Description

Online etiquette

Piqsels. online (CC0)

The following activities show what aspects must be taken into account when we work online. Aspects such as how to dress, keep your desk tidy or how to respond to emails are key. Next, you will find an activity to learn how to respond to key questions.

Online Etiquette

Lsiten to the following text carefully and answer the questions

0:00 / 2:35

Fernando Braña Asensio (using clipchamp). netiquette (CC BY-NC-SA)

1.-Netiquette refers to the code of conduct that dictates appropriate and respectful behavior online

○ True ○ False

True

2.- Netiquette only applies to social media interactions.

○ True ○ False

False

3.- Practicing good netiquette helps to create a negative online environment.

○ True ○ False

False

4.- It is important to use offensive language when communicating online.

○ True ○ False

False

5.- Adjusting privacy settings to control who can see your information is recommended for online safety.

○ True ○ False

True

6.- In online forums, it is important to focus on personal attacks and inflammatory remarks.

○ True ○ False

False

7.- When participating in instant messaging, it is respectful to overwhelm the other person with messages.

○ True ○ False

False

8.- Online meetings and video conferences have their own set of etiquette rules.

○ True ○ False

True

9.- Respecting intellectual property rights is not a consideration in online interactions.

○ True ○ False

False

10.- Following netiquette guidelines can help ensure that the internet remains a valuable and enjoyable space for everyone.

○ True ○ False

True

Interactive Video

Source: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qWbWL0I3ySk Standard Youtube License

Alternative Textual Description

A Step Ahead

For more listening practice, try the following activities. You find them really useful!

- Etiquette
- Work-life balance
- Scenes from an office
- Netiquette explained

WRITING

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/Z1oto9LW4UU

Fernadno Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

In this writing section, we are going to learn how to keep good manners at work. Aspects like being punctual, dressing appropriately or showing respect help us to be professionals and are key to knowing other working and cultural environments. I think that knowing this will eventually help me when I start my future job in Ireland so I would like you to join me!

Keeping good manners at work

Piqsels. writing (CC0)

We have already dealt with manners at work in preceding units. This includes knowing how to write a formal email, a cover letter or how to write a thank-you email after a job interview. These aspects are crucial to keep a good etiquette and be well mannered at work.

Being punctual, showing respect to work colleagues, communicating clearly, dressing appropriately, and maintaining professionalism are essential to know other working and cultural environments. Courtesy and kindness also help to create a positive workplace culture where everyone feels valued and respected.

Below you will find some useful practice to go deeper into these concepts

👀 Scrambled List

Write the following text in order so as it makes a meaningful paragraph about how to keep good manners at work

- 2.- Dress Code: Adhere to the dress code established by your company.
- Take ownership of your work and strive for excellence in all that you do.
- Use professional language in emails, phone calls, and face-to-face interactions. Listen actively and attentively during meetings and discussions.
- Being punctual shows that you respect other people's time and value the importance of being reliable.
- In the professional world, displaying proper etiquette demonstrates respect, professionalism, and maturity. Here are some key etiquette guidelines to keep in mind in the workplace:
- Professional etiquette plays a crucial role in creating a positive work environment and fostering strong relationships with colleagues and supervisors.
- Avoid gossiping or speaking negatively about others. Respect diversity and be inclusive of all coworkers.
- 1. Communication: Maintain clear and respectful communication with your colleagues and supervisors.
- Social Etiquette: Be mindful of social interactions in the workplace. Avoid controversial topics and be sensitive to cultural differences.

Approach disagreements with an open mind and seek solutions that benefit all parties involved.

Dress professionally and appropriately for your workplace. Avoid wearing clothing that is too casual or revealing.

4.- Respect for Others: Treat your colleagues with respect and kindness.

6.- Conflict Resolution: Handle conflicts professionally and constructively.

3.- Punctuality: Arrive on time for work, meetings, and appointments.

5.- Work Ethic: Demonstrate a strong work ethic by being diligent, responsible, and dedicated to your tasks.

Check

Write the missing words

Read the sentences below and write the missing words.

WORD BANK: answering/attend/clean/etiquette/late/punctual/respectful/thank/tidy/treat

1. It is important to [redacted] meetings on time and be prepared to contribute.
2. When communicating with colleagues, it is best to use [redacted] and polite language.
3. Keeping your work area [redacted] and organized can help create a professional impression.
4. Avoid [redacted] personal calls or text messages during work hours.
5. Remember to always [redacted] colleagues for their assistance or contributions.
6. It is important to be [redacted] when speaking to your coworkers and superiors.
7. Arriving [redacted] to meetings and appointments is a sign of disrespect.
8. Avoid having a messy. Always keep your workplace [redacted]
9. Always [redacted] your colleagues and clients with kindness and respect.
10. Proper [redacted] is expected when dining with business associates.

Submit

Cloze Activity

Read the paragraph below and fill in the missing words.

https://www.youtube.com/embed/UaYI4Tfgw-g

Fernando Braña Asensio (vidnoz). dos and donts online meetings (CC BY-NC-SA)

[redacted] meetings have become increasingly common in today's digital age. Just like in-person meetings, it is important to follow proper [redacted] to ensure smooth communication and professionalism. Here are some do's and don'ts to keep in mind when participating in virtual meetings:

Among the do's you must be [redacted] : Just like in-person meetings, it is essential to be on time for virtual meetings. Log in a few minutes early to [redacted] you are ready when the meeting starts.

True but you must avoid [redacted] during the meeting, such as checking emails or [redacted] the internet. Give your full attention to the meeting to show [redacted] to the speaker and other participants.

You must dress [redacted] : Even though you are attending the meeting from home, it is important to [redacted] professionally. This shows respect for the meeting and the other participants.

That's true and you mustn't forget to mute yourself: When you are not speaking, remember to [redacted] your microphone to avoid [redacted] noise that can disrupt the meeting.

Don't forget to [redacted] your technology: Ensure your internet connection, microphone, and camera are working properly before the meeting starts. This can help [redacted] technical issues during the meeting.

And you mustn't interrupt others: Allow each participant to speak without [redacted] . Raise your [redacted] or use the chat function if you have something to add, and wait for your [redacted] to speak.

Always remind to find a quiet space: Choose a quiet and well-lit space for the meeting to minimize [redacted] and [redacted] clear communication.

Never use [redacted] language or behavior: Maintain a professional tone and demeanor during the meeting. Avoid using [redacted] , inappropriate language, or gestures that may be perceived as [redacted] .

Always engage actively: Stay engaged during the meeting by [redacted] listening, asking questions, and participating in discussions. This shows that you are [redacted] and interested in the conversation.Never leave without saying [redacted] : When the meeting is coming to an end, thank the participants and the host before leaving. This shows courtesy and appreciation for their time.

By following these do's and don'ts of virtual meetings etiquette, you can [redacted] to a productive and respectful virtual meeting environment. Remember, virtual meetings are a reflection of your professionalism and respect for others, so it is important to approach them with the same level of etiquette as you would in-person meetings.

Submit

SPEAKING

Situation

https://www.youtube.com/embed/lV9m6Q6oExs

Fernando Braña Asensio. Adam (CC BY-NC-SA)

We have come to the end of the unit. We have learnt know how behave at work and keep our manners accordingly. Our teacher suggests that we do the following speaking activity so that we can carry out the final task successfully. It will be a good opportunity to talk to other partners as if we were at work and put everything we have learnt so far into practice so, why don't we give it a try?

A Piece of Advice

Piqsels. speaking (CC0)

MEDIATION PRACTICE

Doing this practice will be very helpful for you to do your final task. You may rehearse what you are going to do in your final task.

What do you have to do?

- Go to Unit 5 Meeting Point
- Read the infographic below about "Work Culture in Spain (10 things that will surprise you)"
- Explain the different points in English to a friend who doesn't know anything about the working culture in Spain

Fernando Braña Asensio. working manners spain (CC BY-NC-SA)

Licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution Share Alike License 4.0