2. FINAL TASKS

C.I.F.P A CARBALLEIRA

Miguel Ángel Domínguez Llorente

2025-2026

Inglés

Índice

No se encontraron entradas de tabla de contenido.

1 Read the text above and answer the following questions

1. What is a key benefit of setting goals according to the text?

a. It helps you procrastinate effectively
b. It provides a benchmark for success
c. It increases confusion and lack of direction
d. It guarantees immediate success

2. Which scenario illustrates success based on the text's example?

a. Saving a million dollars for personal spending
b. Setting goals for charity and sticking to them
c. Only focusing on personal wealth accumulation
d. Having no clear goals in life

3. According to the text, what is crucial for goal achievement?

a. Setting too many goals at once
b. Feeling a lack of urgency
c. Having a committed attitude
d. Avoiding any form of disappointment

4. What does the SMART goal setting approach emphasize?

a. Ambiguity and vagueness
b. Setting unattainable goals
c. Making goals Specific, Measurable, and Timeless
d. Being hypothetical and flexible

5. Why is writing down goals considered important?

a. It allows for easy forgetting of goals
b. It makes goals intangible and unreal
c. Writing makes goals powerless and insignificant
d. It transforms goals into tangible targets

6. Which step is often overlooked in the goal setting process?

a. Setting goals in writing
b. Sticking with the plan
c. Making an Action Plan
d. Crossing off completed steps

7. According to the text, why should one create an action plan?

a. To solely focus on the end result
b. To plan for long-term goals only
c. To realize progress and necessary steps
d. To have a flexible approach

8. What is emphasized as a key aspect of successful goal setting?

a. Making radical changes to end destinations
b. Keeping goals irrelevant and unnecessary
c. Regularly reviewing and adjusting goals
d. Avoiding reminders and self-reflection

9. In goal setting, why is motivation considered crucial?

a. It leads to setting unimportant and trivial goals
b. It encourages setting too many goals at once
c. Motivation is unnecessary for achieving goals
d. It plays a key role in achieving set goals

10. What is the importance of value in goal setting according to the text?

a. Value is irrelevant as long as goals are set
b. Value ensures too many goals are set at once
c. Value leads to a lack of commitment to goals
d. Value is crucial for goal commitment and achievement

2.- Match the following words in the text with the correct definition

In the middle column write the number and its corresponding letter. For example 1.c.

1. Goal setting	C	a. Perceptible by touch; capable of being touched or felt, often used to describe something real or concrete
2. Focus	H	b. A sense of importance or time sensitivity that drives one to take immediate action.
3. Benchmark	J	c. The process of identifying something that you want to accomplish and establishing measurable objectives and a timeframe to achieve it.
4. Charity	G	d. Intense enthusiasm or desire for something; a strong and compelling emotion towards a goal or activity.
5. Motivation	F	e. A detailed plan outlining the steps, resources, and timeline needed to reach a specific goal or objective.
6. Urgency	B	f. Concentrating attention and effort on a specific task or objective.
7. SMART Goals	I	g. The act of giving resources to those in need, often involving money, time, or goods
8. Tangible	A	h. The reason or reasons behind one's actions, willingness to put effort into achieving a goal
9. Passion	D	i. Goals that are Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Time-bound. A method to ensure that goals are clear and reachable.
10. Action Plan	E	j. A standard or point of reference that allows you to evaluate or measure the quality, value, or success of your goals or achievements.

3. Understanding Goal Setting: answer the following questions in full sentences according to the information provided in the text

1. Why is goal setting important according to the text?

   Because to establish good goals , asegure a commitment yourselft objetives academics or personal objetives and maximize to getting success.

2. What is the significance of setting SMART goals as mentioned in the text?

The significate valour to SMART is Specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, time-bound,

3. How does the act of writing down a goal impact its achievability according to the text?

   This activity do that the persons remember his compromise and perseverance with their objectives

4. What is the importance of making an action plan in the process of goal setting based on the text?

   The importance do make a action plan is ensure all steps necessary for to arrive a complete to goal

5. Why is it emphasized in the text to stick with goal setting as an ongoing activity?

   Because is important don’t forget the way neither motivation nor passion with the goal